

Religious extremism – threat to the future of the youth

Religious extremism, fundamentalism, violence and terrorism can be found around the world in worrisome supply. An event on the topic “Religious extremism – threat to the future of the youth” was organized by the chair of “Irrigation and Melioration” in the institute’s dormitory №3 on December 5 , 2018. Docent Sh.Ch.Botirov, docent S.A.Kasimbetova, G.T.Akhmedinova, D.O.Abduraimova, D.G.Yulchieva, A.Dolidudko, M.S.Hayitova and Sh.Azizov were responsible for the event. The information was presented to the students by videos including controversies increasing between different flows in the Muslim’s world and bloody wars. Moreover, the students were explained how it is important to keep the peace of our motherland and it is the duty of each of us. The event was very interesting with questions and discussions.

M.Khayitova, trainee teacher in the chair of “Irrigation and Melioration”

R.Jumaniyozov, the press-secretary of the institute