

SUBJECTS TAUGHT AT THE DEPARTMENT

02.02.2021 846

At the undergraduate level

No	Science name	Brief information about science
1.	Pedagogy, psychology	The goal of pedagogy is to improve the quality of excellence in people, equip young people with modern ethical and practical knowledge, skills and abilities, educate mature, versatile people in all respects, develop knowledge and skills corresponding to each area. The purpose of psychology - The acquisition of psychological knowledge is the formation of knowledge, skills and competencies in the field of personality psychology, the patterns of his activities and communication, mental processes and psychological characteristics.
2.	Pedagogy	"Pedagogy" science - to improve the general pedagogical and psychological culture of students, to form a holistic view of human activities, to predict the consequences of individual behavior, to read independently and accurately assess their capabilities, involves the formation of pedagogical knowledge, skills and competencies to find ways to achieve goals.
3.	Professional psychology	Provides students with the knowledge of labor psychology necessary for professional activity, the formation of the necessary training and the formation of skills.
4.	Psychology of management	In the training of competitive personnel, aspects of high spirituality for a fully mature, versatile person are: the formation of such qualities as purity, cooperation, brotherhood, solidarity, patience, generosity
5.	Educational technologies	The purpose of educational technology is to implement and reveal the patterns of the most optimal ways and means of achieving educational goals based on a technological approach to the learning process.
6.	Vocational education methods	Teaches the organization and conduct of the process of vocational education, methods of assessing knowledge, skills and abilities, organization of professional activities, vocational guidance of students.
7.	Methods for teaching special subjects	Students are well developed in all respects, brought up in the spirit of modernity in the field of agriculture and water management, who can positively solve current problems related to the organization and conduct of educational work, which will accelerate the implementation of reforms in vocational education, the idea of national independence, deeply aware of our national and universal values, lies in the formation of them as teachers of personal and professional education, capable of integrating them into the content of education.
8.	Pedagogical excellence	The subject "Pedagogical Skills" is the formation of professional skills, creative abilities of future teachers, a culture of communication, the formation of pedagogical skills, the formation of basic teaching skills, pedagogical skills. The subject "Pedagogical Skills" teaches the secrets of observation, creativity, independent development of advanced pedagogical practices. It involves the formation of students' attention skills, knowledge, skills and abilities, the ability to manage mental states and independent mastery of the culture of pedagogical techniques in the process of reading and learning.

Master's level

9.	Pedagogical Technology and Pedagogical Excellence (Master)	Studied pedagogical technologies and theoretical foundations of pedagogical skills for scientific and pedagogical activities, study the issues of their implementation in practice.
10.	Methods for teaching special subjects (master's degree)	The use, study and application of advanced innovative methods in scientific and pedagogical activities in teaching special subjects is studied.

11. Psychology of management
(master's degree)

In the preparation of competitive personnel, aspects of high spirituality for an all-round mature, versatile person are: the formation of such qualities as purity, cooperation, brotherhood, solidarity, patience, generosity.