

Festive event dedicated to the day of May 9

On May 6 of this year at 10 o'clock in the Palace of Culture of the Institute, a spiritual and educational festive event was held under the name "Cadriat, eetibor va ezoz". Professors, teachers, employees of the Institute, participants in the Second World War, veterans of the labors, as well as 830 students took part in the festive event. The vice-rector of the Institute for Spiritual and Educational Work K.Shovazov announced the opening of the event, and also introduced the guests to the guests of the event. In connection with the holiday, the students of the faculty "Hydraulic Structures and Engineering Constructions", employees of the Palace of Culture, presented their festive concert with great enthusiasm. At the festive event, valuable gifts were presented to the participants of the Second World War, veteran works, the residents of the makhalla Lashkar run, the general major A.Artykbaev, the colonel A.Abdukaimov, the lieutenant colonel M.Mirzhaparov, and also the former employees of the institute now pensioners. And also lessons of the world were held in the lessons of manaviyat, where discussions were held on this topic.